

Tekla BIM Awards 2018

SA Structural Cape Schanck

The new Cape Schanck Golf resort construction was a $135 million project. The 5 Storey irregular shape building produced many challenges and working closely with the consultants and the builder was an important process.

In the end SA Structural produced over 1300T Steelwork which contained number of custom fabricated box girders, a spiral staircase and other very complex steel structures.

